56 9and mr. peter vuyiya have been appointed as counselor members of the 57 international Teaching center.

58 in addition, ill health has sadly made it impossible for dr. chellie Sun-

59 dram to continue his services as a counselor for Asia, dr. iraj Ayman and 60 mrs. Thelma khelghati have been compelled by circumstances beyond their 61 control to leave, respectively, the continents of Asia and Africa in which 62 they were serving, and mr. Adam Thorne has had to resign, for personal reasons, from the continental board of counselors for europe. we wish

63 first to express our profound appreciation of the contributions these dear friends have made to the advancement of the cause of god during their 64 years of service as counselors, and we pray that the blessings of bahá'u'lláh

65 will surround them in all they undertake in the future.

we now have great happiness in announcing the appointment of the 66 following believers as continental counselors:

Africa: mr. g eorge Allen and mr. h izzaya h issani

The Americas: mr. gustavo correa, mrs. jacqueline delahunt and
dr. william r oberts

Asia: d r. kim m yung-j ung and mrs. Shantha Sundram

Australasia: mrs. v iolette h aake

Europe: mr. patrick o'm ara, mrs. elisabeth mühlischlegel and 67 dr. Shapoor rassekh.

furthermore, as two of the counselors now appointed to the interna-

68 tional Teaching center had been T rustees of their respective continental 69 funds, we now appoint counselor peter mclaren to be T rustee of the con-70 tinental fund in the Americas, and counselor ben Ayala to be T rustee in 71 Australasia.

72 As was abundantly apparent at the time of the Sixth international bahá'í convention and in the meetings of the counselors which followed, the 73 bahá'í world has entered on a stage of the greatest importance in its develop-

74 ment, when the teaching work throughout the world must be in the fore-front of the thoughts of every ardent follower of bahá'u'lláh. The challenges

75 and opportunities are great, and are increasing in number with each passing day. we supplicate the Almighty to grant an unprecedented measure of 76 divine confirmation to the institutions of his embryonic world order and

77 to his faithful believers who are laboring for the diffusion of his message in 78 every region of the globe.

79 with loving bahá'í greetings,
