

THE UNIVERSAL HOUSE OF JUSTICE

20 April 2006

To all National Spiritual Assemblies

Dear Bahá'í Friends,

The Universal House of Justice is pleased to announce the completion of a new volume of Bahá'u'lláh's Writings, entitled "The Tabernacle of Unity", providing the world with yet another work of translation into English from the Holy Writings, one of the goals of the current Five Year Plan.

This small book contains Bahá'u'lláh's Tablet to Mánikchí Şáhib, a prominent Zoroastrian, and a companion Tablet addressed to Mírzá Abu'l-Faḍl, the secretary to Mánikchí Şáhib at that time. These, together with three shorter, inspirational Tablets, offer a glimpse of Bahá'u'lláh's relationship with the followers of a religion that had arisen, many centuries before, in the same land that witnessed the birth of His own Faith.

Currently being published by World Centre Publications, this work will be available for purchase near the end of June through the Bahá'í Distribution Service in Atlanta, Georgia, U.S.A....

You will find enclosed a flyer, providing details of this new release, which you may share with the delegates to your National Conventions and throughout your respective communities so that the believers may be informed of the availability of this new English volume.

With loving Bahá'í greetings,

Department of the Secretariat
