

THE UNIVERSAL HOUSE OF JUSTICE

1990-09-28

To all National Spiritual Assemblies

dear b ahá'í friends, the most recent riḡván message in which the friends throughout the world are asked to focus on the need to attract people of capacity and prominence to the faith. because of the emphasis the house of justice wishes the friends to place on this matter, the research department was asked to prepare a compilation of texts on the subject. The compilation is now ready and a copy is enclosed.

it is the ardent prayer of the house of justice that careful study of the passages included will assist the believers to appreciate the importance of fostering cordial relations with accomplished and distinguished figures, with people of capacity and with those occupying prominent positions in society. The aim of the believers should be to make of them friends of the faith, dispelling any misconceptions they may have and unfolding before their eyes the vision of world solidarity and peace enshrined in the teachings of bahá'u'lláh. The friends should be confident that the spiritually minded and receptive souls among such people will eventually accept the truth of the b ahá'í revelation and join the ranks of its active supporters.

with loving b ahá'í greetings,
