

THE UNIVERSAL HOUSE OF JUSTICE

1995-02-10

closed copy of a compilation on scholarship prepared recently at its request by the research department at the Bahá'í world center.

it is the hope of the house of justice that a study of this compilation will serve as a stimulus and a guide in the further development of Bahá'í scholarship, and that the unique features of this vital aspect of Bahá'í activity will be clarified through a perusal of its contents.

The house of justice calls upon the members of the community of the greatest Name, young and old, men and women alike, to strive to develop and offer to humanity a new model of scholarly activity along the lines set out in this compilation, animated by the spirit of inquiry into the limitless meaning of the divine Teachings. This scholarly endeavor should be characterized by the welcome it offers to all who wish to be involved in it, each in his or her own way, by mutual encouragement and cooperation among its participants, and by the respect accorded to distinguished accomplishment and outstanding achievement. The spirit and approach should be far removed from the arrogance, contention, and exclusiveness which have too often sullied the name of scholarship in the wider society, and which have created barriers to the sound development of this worthy pursuit.

195-1. The compilation is too long to include here; see cc 3, pp. 226–64; the compilation is also available online at <http://reference.bahai.org/en/t/c/Sch/.195.1>
