Dear Bahá'í Friends,

In light of the message dated 10 July 2014 to the Bahá'ís of the world calling for the adoption of provisions for the common implementation of the Badí' calendar, the Universal House of Justice has instructed that four explanatory footnotes be added to the Notes section of The Kitáb-i-Aqdas: The Most Holy Book. Accordingly, the following changes should be incorporated into all future editions of the book (page references are to the United States Bahá'í Publishing Trust's pocket-size edition, 2009 printing).

In its message dated 10 July 2014 concerning the common implementation of the Badí' calendar beginning at Naw-Rúz 172, the Universal House of Justice designated Tīhrán as the spot on the earth that would serve as the standard for determining, by means of astronomical computations from reliable sources, the moment of the vernal equinox in the northern hemisphere and thereby the day of Naw-Rúz.

Note 147, page 227, line 13: after “to the solar year.”, insert an asterisk and place the following footnote at the bottom of the page:

With the implementation of the Badí' calendar as announced by the Universal House of Justice in its message dated 10 July 2014, the number of intercalary days varies according to the timing of the vernal equinox in successive years.
