To all National Spiritual Assemblies

dear b ahá'í f riends, we enclose a copy of a new compilation entitled Conservation of the Earth's Resources, which was prepared by the research department at the ing the friends in responding to the call, in the ri÷ván message, for an increase in bahá'í activities aimed at supporting endeavors to protect the environment.76-1

The compilation was assembled, primarily, to deepen the believers' appreciation of the bahá'í concept of nature and to enhance their understanding of both man's relationship to nature and his responsibility to preserve the world's ecological balance. it could also serve as a valuable tool for use with non-b ahá'ís who have some knowledge of the bahá'í faith and its approach to the solution of pressing social problems.

Assemblies will make the material in the compilation available to the believ-ers and that, armed with increased knowledge of this important subject, the friends will be inspired to lend their assistance to those who are striving to make this world "an earthly paradise."

with great pleasure the house of justice takes this opportunity to announce the establishment of an office of the environment, which will conduct the external relations of the bahá'í international community with regard to environmental matters. Thus it will foster relations with the world wide fund for Nature and other like-minded nongovernmental organiza-76-1. The compilation is too lengthy to include here; see cc 1, pp. 65–92.
